EXPLORE

FOOD & DRINK

- The Barrington Boar pub is 3.5 miles from the house, it is walkable in about an hour or you can drive in a few minutes.
- The Dinnington Docks or The Lord Poulett Arms are both noteworthy pubs a drive or cycle away, about 4.5 miles from the house.

TO DO

- Dillington House is a 16th century property just a short walk away, and has regular lectures, concerts and events. It is worth checking their schedule for upcoming events.
- Barrington Court is a Tudor Manor House and a National Trust property a 12-minute drive away.
- Dennis Chinaworks is a nice option to visit and has a fantastic tearoom, serving homemade light meals.
- The jaw-dropping Jurassic coast is a 40-minute drive, Lyme Regis being a perfect day trip.
- Local Somerset Cider producers that welcome visitors are Perry's Cider and Julian Temperly's Cider.

LOCATION

HOW TO GET TO ATHERSTONE

Thatch Cottage is located in the tiny hamlet of Atherstone and is part of the Dillington Estate. There are some local pubs within walking distance and plenty of beautiful Somerset countryside to explore from the front door.

TRANSPORT

Due to its rural location, by car is the best way to get to Thatch Cottage. However, Crewkerne train station is 15 minutes away and Taunton and Castle Cary are a 30-minute drive away, all with direct trains from London.

Detailed directions are provided upon booking.

PARKING

There is private parking for 4 cars at the house.
