INSIDE

THE KITCHEN & LIVING ROOM

The apartment has an open-plan kitchen and living area that look towards floor to ceiling glass doors and a majestic view of St Ives bay. The water is so close that at high tide, it crashes against the side of the apartment, creating the same drama as being on a boat.

And better yet, an Enid Blyton-style trap door leads you to your own private cave below the living room where you can lie on fur rugs with a glass of champagne and watch the sun set through a window built into the stone wall.

THE BEDROOM & BATHROOM

The bedroom, meanwhile, is separated from the living room by a sliding mirrored wall, allowing for some truly incredible St Ives sea views. To the rear of the bedroom is the en-suite bathroom with a full-size bath and walk-in shower.
